Swami Sadanand Maharaj calls on Governor

Governor, Mr. Ganga Prasad with the Member, National Commission for Safai Karmachari Swami Sadanand Maharaj in Raj Bhawan.

Gangtok, December 01: Member, National Commission for Safai Karmachari Swami Sadanand Maharaj called on the Governor Mr. Ganga Prasad at Raj Bhawan, today.

It was a courtesy call by Member Swami Sadanand Maharaj who is on a two days official visit to Sikkim. He is scheduled to hold review meetings with the stakeholders regarding socio-economic condition and facilities being provided to the Safai Karmacharis in the State.

In a brief meeting with Governor, Member Swami Sadanand Maharaj expressed his happiness on knowing that Sikkim does not have the practice of manual scavenging. He opined that the status and condition of Safai Karmacharis in the State and the facilities and equipment being provided to them is one of the best in the country. He also shared his views on the meeting with Gangtok Beautifiers, the nomenclature being used by Gangtok Municipal Corporation for its Safai Karmacharis and said that he is impressed by the novelty of idea and objective behind the nomenclature.

The Governor provided a brief insight into the socio economic status of the Safaikarmacharis in Sikkim and said that they are the most empowered among their counterparts in the country.

Governor attends Sanskrit speaking workshop at Jalipool

Gangtok, November 30: Governor Mr. Ganga Prasad attended valedictory function of ten days Sanskrit speaking workshop at Kanchi Kamakoti Mandir at Jalipool, today. The workshop was jointly organised by Sanskrit Bharati, Chinmaya Mission Sikkim Unit and Vishwa Hindu Parishad, Sikkim Unit.

Addressing the gathering, Governor highlighted the importance of Sanskrit language in the Indian culture and stressed on the need to promote and make use of the language for better understanding of Indian civilisation and heritage. He mentioned that Sanskrit, being the mother of all major Indian languages, has been presently been acknowledged by the western researchers as one of the most scientific language, best suited for the present day need of computer technology. The Governor also underlined the significance of Sanskrit in the context of nation's unity and integration, besides its benefit to individual and society at large. The Governor while making an appeal to everyone to adopt the language for betterment of self and nation, said that by propagating Sanskrit worldwide in its right spirit, we will be able to achieve the goal of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam.

Earlier in the programme, the participants shared their learning experiences. The program was also addressed by various speakers.

International Ambedkar Conclave held

New Delhi, December 01: Minister for Health Care, Human Services and Family Welfare Department, Mr. A. K. Ghatani chaired a plenary and valedictory session of two days International Ambedkar Conclave at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi, today.

He expressed heartfelt gratitude to the forum and delegates for their invaluable deliberations and inputs.

Minister, in his address, highlighted recently initiated monthly pension scheme to the farmers above 50 years of age envisioned by the Chief Minister Mr. Pawan Chamling and urged forum to put proposal for similar pension scheme before the Central Government in favour of SC/ST farmers all over the country.

He also urged the August house to celebrate Ambedkar Jayanti in the national capital with the presentation of culture and tradition of different states.

He suggested Forum to publish an annual book incorporating contents and inputs given by eminent speakers during the technical sessions.

Workshop on finding solutions to traffic problem
