

Press Release from the Office of Chairman, SIMFED

Press meet was organized by Positive Vibes Entertainment Network (PVE Network) on Thursday in Gangtok to share updates and preparations for the upcoming mega musical event, “Nepathya Live in Sikkim – Let’s Get Loud: Celebrate Sikkim.”

The concert is scheduled to take place on October 31, 2026, at Paljor Stadium, Gangtok, marking a significant occasion for music lovers across Sikkim and the neighbouring regions.

The event is being organized under the visionary leadership and direction of Hon’ble Chief Minister Shri Prem Singh Tamang (Golay), with Shri Sanjeet Kharel serving as the Chief Patron.

The press meet focused on the final preparations for the concert, including stage production, venue infrastructure, audience entry procedures, ticket verification, security arrangements, crowd management, traffic coordination, and media guidelines.

The organizers also highlighted the event’s potential to promote Sikkim as an emerging destination for large-scale musical concerts and cultural tourism, while providing an opportunity for people to come together through music and cultural celebration.

Among those associated with the event are Hon’ble Health Chairman Shri Phurba Ringzing Sherpa, Shri Nir Chettri, Event State Representative, and Shri Bikash Kayastha, Founding Director of PVE Network.

Speaking on the significance of the upcoming concert, the organizers emphasized their commitment to ensuring a well-coordinated, safe, and memorable experience for audiences attending the historic musical celebration.

The organizing committee expressed its gratitude to the media fraternity for its continued support in disseminating information and building public awareness ahead of the concert.

“Nepathya Live in Sikkim – Let’s Get Loud: Celebrate Sikkim” is expected to bring music enthusiasts together for a memorable evening at Paljor Stadium, Gangtok, on October 31
