Press release from the Sikkim’s Marathon Man Amar Subba

Sikkim’s Marathon Man Amar Subba Reaches Trimbakeshwar

Amar Subba from Sikkim has reached Trimbakeshwar, Nashik today. Tomorrow, 22 November, he will run the challenging 50KM category at the Trimbak Trail Run.

Trimbakeshwar is one of the 12 Jyotirlingas and the birthplace of the sacred Godavari River, nestled in the Brahmagiri hills - a land of devotion, history and mountains.

Trimbak Ultra is recognised by ITRA and UTMB, making it one of India’s most prestigious trail running events.

Amar is a pioneer of trail running in the Northeast. He represented India at the Asian Mountain Running Championship 2016 in China, completed the Everest Marathon 2017, and represented India at UTMB Malaysia 2025.

His participation is supported by Tourism Minister Shri Tshering T. Bhutia, Headmaster G.S. Subba, Entrepreneur cum Social Worker Shri Dilhang Limboo and Bhanu Rasaily of Gangtok.
