

The Hon'ble Governor of Sikkim, Shri Om Prakash Mathur, called on the Hon'ble Vice President of India, Shri C. P. Radhakrishnan, in New Delhi today.

This was the first courtesy meeting following the Hon'ble Vice President's assumption of office. The Hon'ble Governor extended his warmest congratulations to the Hon'ble Vice President on his assumption of office and conveyed his best wishes for a successful and productive tenure in service to the nation.

During the meeting, several issues pertaining to the overall development of Sikkim were discussed. The Hon'ble Governor apprised the Hon'ble Vice President of the ongoing initiatives and priorities of the State Government aimed at promoting sustainable development, tourism, and welfare of the people of Sikkim.

A commemorative coin marking the celebration of 50 years of Sikkim's glorious statehood in the Indian Union was also presented to the Hon'ble Vice President of India by the Hon'ble Governor. The Hon'ble Vice President appreciated the efforts being made towards the State's growth and assured his continued support in all endeavours contributing to the progress and prosperity of Sikkim.