

Press Release From The Office of the Additional Political Secretary to HCM, Namchi District
Namchi, 14 April : The Additional Political Secretary to the Hon'ble Chief Minister, Namchi District, Shri Bishnu Sharma, accompanied by the Additional District Collector (Development), Ravangla, Shri Dek Prasad Dahal, and Hon'ble Panchayat of Upper Borong Ward, Shri Tek Man Pradhan, visited the under-construction houses under the Sikkim Garib Awas Yojana (SGAY) at Upper Borong Ward under Borong Phamtam GPU.

During the visit, the team reviewed the progress of construction works and interacted with the beneficiaries to assess on-ground implementation.

Under the dynamic and pragmatic leadership of Hon'ble Chief Minister Shri Prem Singh Tamang (Golay), the government continues its commitment to uplift the poor and downtrodden by providing dignified housing through SGAY.

It was observed that the construction of all houses is being carried out as per the prescribed departmental guidelines and the work is progressing satisfactorily.

The visiting officials expressed satisfaction with the quality and pace of execution and reiterated the government's dedication to ensuring timely completion for the benefit of all eligible families.
