

Press release from Education Department Gyalshing

Education Department Gyalshing holds District Level Inter School Quiz Competition for Middle Schools

Gyalshing, May 14: Under the Rashtriya Aavishkar Abhiyan, a District Level Quiz Contest was organised for Stand Alone Junior High Schools of the district. 18 schools out of 25 participated in the preliminary round, which was done with the use of Google Forms.

Radhu JHS emerged as winners, followed by Gitang JHS, PM Shri Darapthang JHS and Upper Martam JHS as the runners up, respectively.

Questions framed by Mr Tashi Ongyal Bhutia, DD and anchored by Mr Rajesh Thapa, JD, the contest had audio visual and buzzer rounds to add fun to the contest.

The Chief guest Mr PG Bhutia, CEO, Gyalshing in his speech expressed joy in seeing the students answering to most of the questions. Some questions, which needed high level of intellect, were answered by the kids of Junior High school level, showed that our teachers are really doing their best in providing the best education in our schools.

The CEO gave away prizes and certificates to the winning and participating schools, along with the Best Escort trophy and Best BAC Trophy being given to Dentam BAC.