About Sikkim Aama Sashaktikaran Yojana (SASY)

The Sikkim Aama Sashaktikaran Yojana (SASY) is a flagship welfare initiative of the Government of Sikkim aimed at empowering mothers across the state. Under this scheme, mothers are provided with financial support and utility items to encourage their active participation in household welfare, economic stability, and community development.

The programme embodies the vision of the Government to uplift women, strengthen family well-being, and promote inclusive growth by ensuring that every mother in Sikkim receives due recognition and support.

The event concluded with the distribution of cheques to the beneficiaries of 15-Rangang Yangang Constituency, symbolizing the Government's continued commitment to women empowerment and social welfare.
