Honorable Governor participated in the anniversary 'Victory 2026' of Sir Pratap Vidhi College

Sir Pratap Vidhi College, Jodhpur's annual convocation 'Victory 2026' was organized today at Marwar Convention Center.

Hon'ble Governor of Sikkim Mr. Om Prakash Mathur attended this function as Chief Guest.

Titles and medals were distributed to the graduating students in the program.

In his address, the Governor Sir Pratap Vidhi College wishing all the best for bright future to the medalists and graduates, "Today I feel proud from this platform remembering the glorious history of Sir Pratap Vidhi College, whose Roots are deeply engaged in our culture and progressive thinking. About 140 years ago today, Maharaja Sir Pratap Singh, the rich of modern and visionary ideas, with the inspiration of Munshi Shambhulal ji Mathur, took a pious pledge to give excellent education to the children of society. With the same resolution, 'Sir Pratap School' was laid on 26 September 1887, it has become a top centre of higher education and nation building today.

The Governor said that the institution has given birth to many talents in the field of politics, judiciary, sports and education, who have brightened the country and society.

The Governor, encouraging the students, said "Victory 2026" is not just the distribution of degrees, but a celebration of years of penance and hard work of the students. At last they called all degree holders congratulating all degree holders to raise the name of college and country high with their hard work and integrity.

Many dignitaries of the country and state participated in the function including Union Culture and Tourism Minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat, Former Chief Justice Allahabad High Court, Justice Govind Mathur, Hon'ble Justice Kuldeep Mathur, MLA Shri Atul Bhansali, College Principal & Director Dr. Shambhu Singh Rathore, President of Nav Samaj Education Institute, Jodhpur Shri Girish Mathur and all members of the institute, faculty members and students were present.
