

A historic and proud moment was marked today in Dharan with the grand inauguration of the statue of Honorary Captain Late Ganju Lama VC, MM, PD, ADC. The event was organized by the 7GR Regimental Association, Nepal, and held in conjunction with the celebration of Meiktila Day and the 124th 7GR Regimental Birthday. The ceremony witnessed the presence of several distinguished guests, including:

Mr. Rob Fenn, HE Ambassador UK

Mr. Norden Dorjee Shangderpa (Son of Late Ganju Lama VC)

Colonel Dan Rex MVO (Defence Attaché / Comd BGN)

Major Kiran Pun MVO (Gurkha Major BGN)

Major TE Morris

Major Bhuwansing Limbu MVO

Lieutenant Colonel Rob Browne (Deputy Comd BGN)

Mrs. Pem Chuki Kazini (Wife of Late Ganju Lama VC)

The unveiling of the statue of Late Ganju Lama VC—grandfather of the Chairman—made the occasion deeply emotional and significant. The presence of the Chairman's family members further added warmth and dignity to the ceremony.

During the event, heartfelt tributes were paid to the extraordinary bravery, sacrifice, and dedication of Late Ganju Lama VC. His heroic actions during World War II continue to inspire generations and remain a proud chapter in military history.

Speakers at the ceremony emphasized the importance of remembering such মহান heroes and encouraged the younger generation to draw inspiration from their courage, discipline, and patriotism.

The event concluded with a strong message of honoring legacy, preserving history, and inspiring future generations.
