Lok Bhawan: Sikkim

Date: 4/3/2026

Honorable Governor of Sikkim Shri Om Prakash Mathur recorded his dignified presence today at the Holy Milan function organized by Marwadi society, Gangtok.

Honorable Chief Minister Mr. Prem Singh Tamang was also present on this occasion.

The program started with traditional methods and colourful cultural presentations. The Hon'ble Governor rejoiced on the occasion that the Holi festival is a symbol of social harmony, brotherhood and unity of colors, a living example of which today's event presents. He said such events strengthen the multi-cultural identity of Sikkim.

Ministers, legislators, public representatives, senior officers of state government and public community also participated in the program.
