

Press Release From The Department of Animal Husbandary and Veterinary Services, Namchi District

Namchi, 16 December: A one day awareness camp on FMD, PPR and Brucellosis under NADCP was conducted at Sorok Shyampani GPU under aspirational block, Namchi in the presence of honorable Panchayat President, Mrs Devika Rai and other ward Panchayats of the GPU, today.

The farmers were informed about the aforementioned diseases and were given insight on the vaccination programs and the current schemes under the AH and VS department such as Insurance for both large and small ruminants and pig, PPIS schemes.

Farmers were also informed about the Bharat Pashudhan app and its implementation which requires OTPs and active participation from the farmers as well. Mineral mixture and dewormers were also distributed to the farmers.

The gathering were also sensitised on the management of Stray dogs and importance of responsible pet ownership, vaccination and Animal Birth Control activities in Rabies prevention.