The birth centenary celebration of Ashok Sinhal was organized in Siliguri; Sikkim's Honorable Governor Om Prakash Mathur attended as the chief guest. Under the auspices of Vishva Hindu Parishad, the birth centenary celebration of the late Ashok Sinhal, the custodian of Sanatan culture, was organized in Siliguri today. The Honorable Governor of Sikkim, Shri Om Prakash Mathur, attended as the chief guest in this program.

At the beginning of the ceremony, the Governor paid homage to the late Ashok Sinhal and the statue of Mother India by offering flowers.

On the occasion of the 100th birth anniversary of Ashok Sinhal, who was born on September 27, 1926, people from various fields of society gathered for this event.

In his address, the Honorable Governor recalled his close relations with the revered Ashok Sinhal Ji and thanked the organizers for inviting him to the event. He said that Ashok Sinhal Ji's life was dedicated to the nation. He dedicated his life to creating a sense of patriotism, selfless social service, and unity in society in the country.

The Governor said that the contribution made by Ashok Sinhal Ji in promoting Indian culture and Sanatan values on a global scale will be remembered for generations to come. He praised his excellent work in realizing the idea of a single school and said that his life is an inspiration.

The Honorable Governor called on the public to adopt the path shown by Shri Ashok Sinhal Ji in their lives, which would be a true tribute to him. The resolve he had taken to unite society and keep it connected to its cultural roots needs to be inculcated in the younger generation today.

As the chief speaker of the program, Shri Ashok Tiwari, Mahamantri, Vishva Hindu Parishad, presented his speech. On this occasion, the dignified presence of sadhus, saints, mahatmas, and workers was present. At the same time, the officials of Vishva Hindu Parishad and various associations and social-cultural organizations from Siliguri and surrounding areas also felicitated the Honorable Governor.

The program concluded with the slogans of Bharat Mata.
